Section 5 of the Perjury Act 1911

If any person knowingly and wilfully makes (otherwise than on oath) a statement false in a material particular, and the statement is made:

in a statutory declaration; or in an abstract, account, balance sheet, book, certificate, declaration, entry, estimate, inventory, notice, report, return or other document which he is authorised or required to make, attest, or verify, by any public general Act of Parliament for the time being in force, in any oral declaration or oral answer which he is required to make by, under or in pursuance of any public general Act of Parliament for the time being in force, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour and shall be liable on conviction thereof on indictment to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, or to a fine or to both such imprisonment and fine.

This statement has been compiled from my responses to questions put to me by Aliyah Aktar.

The attached statement, consisting of 1 page, has been read by me and I confirm that it is true to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

I confirm that I made this statement after Section 5 of the Perjury Act 1911 was read by me and that I understood its meaning.

I have no objection to this narrative statement and my Preliminary Information Questionnaire being shown to any Insolvency Practitioner who may be appointed as Trustee in bankruptcy

Jemma Roche, Deputy Official Receiver present in the interview for observational purposes.

3.2 My Lloyds Bank account number 59702860/30-84-58 has a balance is 18pence. This is my main account.

3.2 The Revolut Bank account number 23-01-20/ 30691367 with a balance of £1481.05 is a company bank account and not my personal account.

A joint HSBC account was opened after my father's death to deal with money belonging to my parents. I did not contribute to those funds and understand that the balance was transferred to my mother around late 2024 or during 2025. I am unsure whether I remain named on that account and will provide the account details, the amount transferred and the date of transfer.

13.1 – page 22- Debt owed to National laptop repair Center-

£14,986 was paid from my account towards the company's vehicle finance. The company transferred the funds to me for this purpose.

The vehicle finance relating to white Mercedes GLE, registration KK18 URU was taken out in my name because the company was too new to obtain finance and the payments needed to be established. I did not receive a salary from the company. The funds transferred to me were solely for the vehicle payments.

I do not owe National Laptop Computer Repair Centre Limited any money.

I have read the above statement and find it to be true to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.
